(503) 234-8556 / heather.stebbing@pnwa.net

As PNWA's Executive Director, Heather Stebbings leads the association's work with Congress, federal agencies and regional decision makers on transportation, trade, energy and environmental policies and projects. PNWA's membership includes over 150 public ports, transportation providers, agriculture and forest products producers, public utilities, manufacturers, labor groups and others in Washington, Oregon, and Idaho.

Stebbing has 16 years of advocacy and public policy experience for the Pacific Northwest maritime community, including 13 years directing communications and government relations for PNWA. She has also spent time working with the Port of Vancouver USA and Shaver Transportation Company on both communications and government relations efforts. Stebbings has a BA in Applied Mathematics from the University of Connecticut, and has lived in the Northwest since 2000. She makes her home in Portland, Oregon with her two children, Charles and Sylvie.
